statements must include at a minimum:

- (i) A written statement by a competent medical authority stating that special accommodation is necessary:
- (ii) An approximate duration of the special accommodation; and
- (iii) A recommendation as to the suitable class of transportation accommodations based on the disability.
- (2) A special need must be certified annually in writing according to your agency's procedures. However, if the special need is a lifelong condition, then a one-time certification statement is required;
- (3) If you are authorized under §301–13.3(a) of this Subchapter to have an attendant accompany you, your agency may also authorize the attendant to use other than lowest first-class class accommodations if you require the attendant's services en route;
- (c) When exceptional security circumstances require other than lowest first-class travel. Exceptional security circumstances are determined by your agency and should only be authorized to the minimum other than lowest first-class travel accommodation necessary to meet the agency's mission. These circumstances include, but are not limited to:
- (1) The use of lowest first-class accommodations would endanger your life or Government property; or
- (2) You are an agent on protective detail and you are accompanying an individual authorized to use other than lowest first-class accommodations; or
- (3) You are a courier or control officer accompanying controlled pouches or packages.
- (d) When required because of agency mission, consistent with your agency's internal procedures pursuant to §301–70.102(i).
